

SCOPES MUST STAND TRIAL IN DAYTON

COOLIDGE TO AVOID KLAN CONTROVERSY AND IGNORE REQUEST

President Will Not Be Drawn Into Trouble
Through Letters

Swampscott, Mass., July 7.—All effort to involve President Coolidge in a controversy over the Ku Klux Klan will be ignored entirely. Hundreds of letters recently sent him following the announcement he was to be invited to address and review an assembly of that secret order in Washington next month—including the invitation itself, will go unanswered.

These letters will never be "officially received."

Definite announcement to this effect was forthcoming from an authoritative source at the summer white house here today.

Mr. Coolidge, it was stated in his behalf, will follow the same course he pursued in the 1920 campaign when similar and unsuccessful efforts were made to wrest from him a definite pronouncement of his views on the Klan.

A revival of the Klan controversy threatened over the week end following announcement in Washington that Colonel C. C. Sherill, in charge of public buildings and grounds had written the president, asking for instructions as to what action he should take on a request from the order for permission to use Sylvan theatre, great natural amphitheatre of the Washington Park system, for their assembly.

Those close to President Coolidge made no attempt to disguise the fact that the executive is somewhat put out by the reported action of Sherill, who incidentally, until a few months ago, was his military aide. The president feels it was a tactless move and he has no intention of replying should the letter be "received."

Comments on the subject continue to pour in at the temporary executive offices.

The latest organization to write in to the president is the Holy Name Society, Catholic order, which he addressed last fall. The Klan has cited this address as a reason why the executive should be willing to greet an organization of Protestants.

LEAPS FROM BRIDGE RESULT OF BROODING

Cleveland, O., July 7.—Brooding over his wife's decision to seek a divorce, Baron S. Myers, 34, was dead today having ended his life with a spectacular leap from the high level bridge in the midst of the homeward traffic jam last night.

A policeman, warned by a passing motorist that a man was about to jump from the span, 115 feet above the street, grabbed Myers by the wrist but the crazed man wrenched himself free and fell to his death.

In his coat was found a note giving his name and address and adding: "I do this action over despondency through actions of her in suing for divorce. I was a man."

SWAN GUILTY JURY FINDS HERE MONDAY

Lewis Swan, this city, was found guilty of illegal possession of narcotics by a jury in Common Pleas Court late Monday afternoon. The jury deliberated forty minutes.

Swan was released under bond and sentence was deferred by Judge R. L. Gowdy pending motion for a new trial.

Among the defendant's witnesses, Dr. William Scott, of Martinsville, Clinton County testified he had given Swan tonic treatments but not narcotic treatments. This testimony was born up by Swan when he took the stand. Dr. W. H. Finley, Xenia, testified he treated Swan as a "drug addict" but had pronounced him cured.

Other witnesses in the trial were Sheriff Morris Sharp, who arrested Swan; Dr. W. H. Donges, Edward Lickliter and Dorsey Nickel. The last two were with Swan when he was arrested.

PLEAD NOT GUILTY TO THEFT OF AUTO

Elmer Bowermaster, 19, and Lawrence Abbing, 19, both of Xenia, entered pleas of not guilty to charges of grand larceny in Police Court Tuesday morning. Their trials were set for Tuesday afternoon by Judge E. D. Smith.

They were arrested Monday by Motorcycle Policeman Peter Shagin accused of the theft of an Oldsmobile roadster, June 28, owned by Grant St. John, of near Jamestown. The machine was later recovered.

Bowermaster and Abbing denied the charge when questioned.

Bowermaster is on parole from the Ohio State Reformatory at Mansfield, O., where he had been sentenced on a similar charge.

STOP SIGNS WORK

Defiance, July 7.—Defiance has a new variety of traffic news to report. June was the first month for several years during which no automobile collisions occurred within the city limits. City officials adopted a "stop street" ordinance thirty days ago and they think the stopping of accidents is the result. From two to ten offenders against the ordinance have been haled daily before Mayor E. A. Latty. No one has yet appeared charged with a second violation, Mayor Latty reported.

AMERICAN FUNDING COMMISSION READY TO DISCUSS DEBTS

Will Meet With French Any Time Except In Reserved
Period

Washington, July 7.—Emile Daeschner, the French ambassador today cabled to Paris the information that the American debt funding commission is ready to discuss the French debt to the United States at any time except between August 5 and August 18. That ten day period has been reserved for negotiations on the Belgian debt.

When he called at the treasury last week to open preliminary negotiations looking to debt funding the French ambassador had inquired as to what time would be convenient for the opening of the forthcoming debt conference in accordance with this request the treasury advised him that the American debt commission would be pleased to start the negotiations at once or at any time prior to August 5 or after August 18.

There is no information here as to when the French debt commission will start for Washington to resume the negotiations broken off three years ago, but it is expected that Finance Minister Caillaux will want all the time that is possible to prepare his plan for funding the American debt and probably will wait until the latter part of August before sending the French representatives here.

AMERICAN MINISTER ARRIVES IN JAPAN

Pekin, July 7.—John V. A. MacMurray, new American minister, arrived here today and immediately hastened to his headquarters, where he plunged into a study of the serious Chinese situation. He offered no in formation as to the turn of events which caused him to cut short his stay in Shanghai. He was met at the railroad station by members of the American delegation staff, officials of the Chinese foreign office, a detachment of the United States marine guard, accompanied by their band and a group of personal friends who knew him when he was secretary of the legation here.

STRONG MEDICINE

Salisbury, Rhodesia, July 7.—The Prince of Wales today visited the Rhodesian mining centers where his ability as a big game hunter astonished the natives, who, in expressing their admiration of the prince's powers declared he is "strong medicine."

RATES GO UP

Elyria, July 7.—Gas bills sent out by the Logan Gas Company for June service include the new schedule of rates providing for a 72½ cent increase for the first 500 feet of gas consumed, or a virtual 72½ cent service charge. The new rates, scheduled to go into effect December 6, 1924, were fought and the rates put into effect under a $400,000 bond, pending determination by the state utility commission of their reasonableness. The six months delay saved gas consumers in 71 Ohio communities approximately $400,000, it is estimated here.

DIAMONDS MISSING FROM ESTATE: PROBE MYSTERY

Valuable Rings Sought By Administrators For Mrs.
Frances Hart—Platinum Set Gems Worth
Several Thousand Dollars

C. L. Darlington, attorney for Frank Dodds and John Forbes, administrators of the estate of Mrs. Frances Hart, who died a few weeks ago, is making a diligent search for three valuable diamond rings belonging to Mrs. Hart, which have mysteriously disappeared.

It was supposed that Mrs. Hart kept the rings in her safety deposit vault, but after her death a search of her effects failed to disclose the jewelry. Mrs. Hart was planning to leave for Atlantic City a few days before her death, and it was thought they took the rings from the vault to take them with her. Search of her home failed to reveal them, however.

Simple Rites

DESPITE THE WEALTH of the bride, Mrs. Mathilda E. Dodge, her wedding to Alfred G. Wilson in Detroit was without pomp. Mrs. Dodge was one of the heirs to the $60,000,000 automobile magnate's estate.

FIRST WOMAN AGENT IN DRY DEPARTMENT RESIGNS POSITION

Her Bureau Eliminated Under
Reorganization Of General
Andrews

Washington, July 7.—The reorganization of prohibition enforcement methods under the direction of General L. C. Andrews, assistant secretary of the treasury, has resulted in the resignation of Miss Georgia Hopley of Bucyrus, Ohio, the first woman prohibition agent to be appointed by Prohibition Commissioner Haynes.

It was stated at the treasury today that Miss Hopley's resignation, effective July 9, had been accepted. She was a personal friend of the late President Harding and of Commissioner Haynes, who selected her to direct propaganda work in behalf of prohibition enforcement among organizations of women throughout the country. She had the rank of general prohibition agent.

Under the Andrews reorganization, however, the propaganda work, upon which great stress was placed by Haynes, will practically be eliminated, hence Miss Hopley's resignation.

Reports of the early resignation of Haynes continued to be heard in official circles here today, but both he and General Andrews have denied that the prohibition commissioner has any immediate intention of resigning Haynes, according to Andrews, has accepted reorganization without complaint and is making every effort to put it into effect.

CUTTING WHEAT

Bucyrus, July 7.—Wheat cutting has been started in Crawford County last year, the first new wheat was marketed July 25, but local grain buyers predict that if the weather is not too wet the new crop will be marketed much earlier this year.

GRAND JURY PROBES RESPONSIBILITY FOR NIGHT CLUB TRAGEDY

Death Toll Remains at 43—
Expect Arrests Late
Tuesday

Boston, July 7.—With the death toll Boston, July 7.—With the death toll city authorities engaged in a controversy over responsibility, grilling of Building Commissioner John H. Mahoney was resumed today by the special Suffolk County grand jury, probing the Pickwick night club building collapse.

Return of indictments and issuance of warrants for those found responsible for the disaster—these were expected before evening.

The grand jury, directing the inquiry, sat from morning until midnight last night.

District Attorney Thomas C. O'Brien and the jurors were almost in a state of physical collapse.

The grilling of Building Commissioner John H. Mahoney, was underway when the recess was taken. As Mahoney resumed the witness stand today no less than forty-five witnesses were packed in the ante-rooms of the court house waiting to testify.

Attorney General Benton was watching the result of the grand jury proceedings to report to Governor Alvan T. Fuller. Should the grand jury probe fail, an independent state investigation will be ordered, according to the governor's office.

Meanwhile squads of workers kept digging in the ruins of the ill fated Pickwick Club but with little prospect that more bodies would be found. The controversy over responsibility for the disaster is in full tilt between state and city authorities.

State Commissioner of Safety Foote, has declared building laws of Boston place the responsibility on the shoulders of Mayor James Curley, Building Commissioner Mahoney and Building Inspector James J. Hendrick.

POLA NEGRI WILL LEARN LESSON

Failure to Declare Jewels
To Cost Her "Ten
Grand"

New York, July 7.—It is going to cost Pola Negri, vivacious film star, exactly $10,000 for a lesson in United States customs laws.

If the sparkling Pola wants the $47,000 worth of jewelry she neglected to declare when she last came back to this country from Europe, she will have to pay the customs authorities $57,000, they asserted here today; $47,000 which is the domestic value of the gems and $10,000 as a fine for evading regulations.

It was all a misunderstanding, Pola said. She left the matter of declaring her jewels to her maid. Also she thought that as she was still a Polish citizen, her diamonds were exempt. Besides, with her limited knowledge of English, she didn't understand what the customs men said to her.

At any rate, Pola's brush with the New York customs officials is going to cost her $10,000, whether she redeems her jewels or not.

SEEK TO CANCEL ALL FOREIGN TREATIES

Shanghai, July 7.—A nation-wide campaign, urging immediate cancellation of all foreign treaties, is apparently gaining force.

Scores of Chinese organizations in Shanghai today sent messages Tuan Chi Jul, chief executive in Peking, advising against any negotiations with the foreign powers on the revision of the present treaties and asking the president to issue a mandate abrogating all present treaties.

QUAKES ARE FELT

Tokio, July 7.—Nagoya and vicinity was shaken by a sharp earthquake early today. Sleeping inhabitants of the Japanese town rushed from their dwellings, but learned that damage had been slight. No casualties were reported.

Faenza, Italy, July 7.—A violent earthquake at an estimated distance of 500 miles was recorded here today. It was not known whether the tremor centered in an inhabited section.

TWO KILLED

Cleveland, O., July 7.—Two persons were killed by lightning in the thunderstorms which struck northern Ohio. William Mowrey, a teamster, working in South Euclid was one victim, the other being Fred V. Hothem, 55, of New Philadelphia. Hothem was killed while standing under a tree. Mowrey was struck by a bolt while sitting in his wagon.

SECRETARY DIES

Paris, July 7.—Eugene Pierre, 77, secretary of the chamber of deputies, who was absent from the sessions of the chamber only three days during a public service of fifty nine years, died today.

BEEES ATTACK CAR; PASSENGERS STUNG

A large swarm of bees blocked the Springfield and Xenia traction car due in Xenia at 3 p. m. Monday at Goes Station, put passengers to rout and delayed the car for twenty minutes before retiring from the field with honors and continuing its flight.

According to one of the passengers who received several wounds in the form of stings in the battle, the car plowed directly through the swarm and bees poured through the open windows.

Panic-stricken patrons followed the usual instinct and employed the arm-waving form of defense which proved entirely inadequate. The motorman was also driven to seek shelter after bringing the car to a stop. The skirmish lasted twenty minutes.

Four or five men and women passengers were stung during the brief engagement while the bee casualties were comparatively few.

Night Air Mail Reaches East

Pictured by Paul Collins (on right) the first plane in the new overnight air mail service between Chicago and New York arrived at Hadley Field, New Brunswick, N. J.

CROWDED PRISONS CAUSE SERIOUS JAIL SITUATION

New Federal Prisons Not Available For Year—State
Penitentiaries and County Jails Taking Overflow

Washington, July 7.—Overcrowded conditions in the federal prisons have developed a serious situation, it was learned at the department of justice today.

With accommodations for about 5,000 inmates there are more than 8,000 men in federal penal institutions with about four or five hundred additional prisoners scattered through state penitentiaries and county jails in various sections of the country.

A new women's prison is under construction at Alderson, West Virginia and a first offenders reformatory has been authorized by congress, but neither of these institutions will be available for acceptance of prisoners until next year.

When the new prisons—both of which are to be designed on the farm cottage plan, are completed, Attorney General Sargent plans to concentrate all long term convicts in federal institutions.

The government, however, will be forced to continue its policy of placing the "short termers" in such state and county prisons as will accept them until more elaborate facilities are provided.

The department of justice in an effort to relieve the congestion, issued an appeal to governors of many states, aiming at transfer of prisoners from federal to state penitentiaries.

WOOLWORTH SCION MARRIES IN LONDON

London, July 7.—With an "Americanized ceremony," Miss Pauline Stanbury, nineteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Stanbury, of London, today married Norman Bailey Woolworth, 24, of New York, son of a cousin of the founder of the five and ten cent store system.

The bridegroom met Miss Stanbury when he came to London, three years ago to manage British stores in the Woolworth system.

Three hundred guests were present at the elaborate ceremony in St. Margaret's of Westminster. A huge reception was held later at Belisle Park, the home of the bride's parents.

GUARD IS SHOT

Sandusky, O., July 7.—Samuel Cole, 35, watchman was shot through the right breast early today by a thief he encountered while making his rounds in the plant of the Sandusky Packing Company, in South Sandusky. He is in a hospital in a critical condition. The gunman escaped.

AUTO CRUSHED

An automobile belonging to Russell Cyphers, Alpha, member of the Reserves baseball team, was crushed when a limb of a tree fell on it while it was parked on Washington Street, near the John T. Barnett Lumber Company yard, during the storm Saturday afternoon. Cyphers was practicing ball at Washington Park at the time.

OVERRULE ATTEMPT TO HALT EVOLUTION CASE—BRYAN READY

Commoner Receives Royal
Welcome—City Happy
Over Verdict

Dayton, Tennessee, July 7.—Its title to the "legal battle of the century" endorsed by a federal court, Dayton, prepared a royal welcome today for William Jennings Bryan, who comes to aid the prosecution of John T. Scopes on charges of violating Tennessee's anti-evolution law.

With Bryan due at noon from his Florida home, this little mountain town, soon to be the scene of legal warfare between fundamentalists and evolutionists, planned a municipal celebration in honor of the decision of Federal Judge John T. Gore at Cookeville in refusing to halt the trial by injunction. Bryan was to be the town's guest of honor at a series of fetes, closing with a banquet tonight.

One vast sigh of relief was breathed by the countryside on the heels of Judge Gore's verdict. A feverish drive was launched at once to complete all arrangements for the prompt opening of the trial Friday. Squads of workmen began to erect scores of temporary business houses to accommodate the tens of thousands of visitors expected. Bunting, flags and "monkey" symbols were flung to the breeze and the two main streets gaily decorated.

The decision actually was a blow to Scopes' defense. His attorneys were caught with their principal witnesses unsummoned and spent the forenoon sending telegrams to a dozen prominent scientists, urging them to appear here Friday.

In addition their failure to carry the case into federal court robbed them of the use of subpoenas and all their witnesses must be obtained through "volunteers" as each scientist to take the stand must face a scathing cross examination at the hands of William J. Bryan and other prosecuting attorneys. It was said, but few have accepted the defense's invitation.

Much speculation was rife here as to the future attitude of Clarence Darrow and Bainbridge Colby toward the case. The defense announced that both attorneys would appear on the scene within 48 hours but rumors persisted that both might be missing when the case is called for trial.

The countryside meanwhile announced itself satisfied with the handpicked jury panel, personally chosen by Rhea county's sixteen justices of the peace under the existing archaic legal system.

Sheriff R. B. Harris left on a tour of the county this morning to notify the twenty-nine tallsmen, most whom are farmers.

With both the state and defense limited to three peremptory challenges, it was generally believed Scopes jury would be chosen from first panel. There was also a feeling that the panel favored the prosecution because a great majority of the men are stout church members. In fact, one, J. M. Hinds, of Grandview, is a Baptist preacher, while another E. C. Byron, of Dayton, is a Sunday cation of their children.

cludes twelve Methodists, nine Baptists, three Presbyterians, one Christ Church member, one Seventh Day Adventist, all of whom have been regular attendants of their respective churches, and three tallsmen, whose church affiliations were not known. "I am perfectly content to rest my case in their hands," said Walter White, county superintendent of schools, who is Scopes' prosecutor. "They are conscientious citizens of high repute among their neighbors and fully qualified to sit in judgment on a subject so vitally affecting the education of their children."

Solid substantial business men who have won hard wrung success in the Cumberland hill towns, and veteran farmers, whose battles with the elements have been even more severe, dominated the panel. There were 14 farmers and three fruit growers, including W. E. Hall, secretary of the Rhea county Farmers Union in the 29 chosen. There were seven merchants.

Dayton at least believed the state of Tennessee had won the first round with the naming of the jury panel and the defeat of the defense move for a federal injunction.

AMENDMENT FOR HOME RULE IS NULLIFIED

New York, July 7.—The movement for more "home rule" for New York, which has its counterpart in similar movement for home rule for large cities in other parts of the country, received a decided setback today as a result of the decision of the appellate court, nullifying the home rule amendment passed by the legislature.

HORSES DECLINE

Elyria, July 7.—The horse, in another decade, will be as much a curiosity as was the automobile twenty years ago, officials here declare. Statistics on file at the Lorain County auditor's office show the horse population in the county declined from 10,459 in 1919 to 6,743 in 1925.

COMMISSIONERS TO HELP CONGRESSMAN SPEND SALARY RAISE

Greene County Commissioners will probably not be represented at the conference of county commissioners of this district with Congressman Charles Brand at Urbana Wednesday, called to discuss Brand's proposal to distribute his $2,000 a year increase in salary to the nine counties composing the seventh congressional district.

Congressman Brand has repeatedly made the statement he will not accept an increase in his yearly salary from $8,000 to $10,000, and is expected to outline plans for distributing the additional money at the Wednesday meeting.

According to his plan, outlined to certain commissioners, the money would be distributed equally every year among the nine counties, providing the fund is used to purchase equipment to prepare stone for use on county roads.

Greene County Commissioners received no official notice of the meeting.

XENIA BUDGET WILL BE PREPARED SOON

Work of compiling Xenia's budget for the year 1926 will be begun within two weeks by City Manager S. O. Hale, it is announced.

The budget must be filed with the tax commission by July 16, according to the state law. This year's report will be condensed and will be no more elaborate than in previous years.

Slight delay in receiving the necessary blanks has retarded work. The blanks will be sent to County Auditor R. O. Wead who will send them to City Manager Hale.

The annual budget is based upon expenditures of previous years.

AUXILIARY ENGINE SERVES PURPOSE

The recently installed gasoline engine at the City Waterworks No. 1 station, purchased to generate power in an emergency, was used for forty-five minutes for the first time Sunday morning during a rainstorm.

The regular power was off between 9:10 a. m. and 10:30 a. m. Sunday but the new eight cylinder gas driven motor "filled the bill" perfectly, in the words of city officials.

The new motor is equipped with a self-starter and generates its own electricity. The engine was used Monday for the second time when power was down and is a valuable addition to the plant equipment, officials believe.

A NEW CITY.

SANTA BARBARA, earthquake-stricken city of the Pacific coast, today is preparing to rise from its own ruins, a better town than before.

In the disaster ten persons lost their lives and the loss, as computed in dollars, will amount to at least twenty millions.

Yesterday the business men of the city made plans for the raising of huge sums that will help the town back to normalcy and back to prosperity.

While they sat in offices, saving the town's future with the effort of their brains, other men were toiling with their bodies, seeking for those who might still be lying crushed beneath crumpled buildings, and starting the gigantic task of restoring architectural order in the chaotic remnants of streets.

From the rest of California and from the rest of the United States offers of assistance were forthcoming. From the world messages of sympathy were pouring in.

The disaster serves to show that where the spirit of progress and the will to win is uppermost, man will rise to the greatest heights, even in times of the sorest distress.

It also reveals that throughout this great country runs a spirit of true unity and co-operation, despite petty surface rivalries.

Ohio, which suffered a great disaster a year ago in the tornado which swept the north of the state, can both sympathize with, and admire the bravery of Santa Barbara.

POLICE MANNERS.

"HEY, YOU!" that effective, if inelegant injunction, is out of date, at least as far as Cleveland policemen are concerned.

During the recent international Rotary convention in Cleveland, the force had special orders to be polite and courteous at all times. The order applied especially to police on traffic duty, because of the many strangers in the city. The courtesy produced such marked results that Chief of Police Graul has directed that politeness shall be in order the year 'round.

The "Hey, You!" point of view has been obsolescent for some time. It still persists in many quarters, but the number is steadily diminishing. A courteous nature stands higher in the selection of policemen, and in public as well as in private life, people have come to realize that courtesy pays in more ways than one.

Business of any consequence has long since insisted that ability to please the public shall be a prime requisite on the part of employees. The worker, be he man or woman who is inconsiderate or discourteous in the attitude which he permits himself to display towards customers and patrons, might just as well seek employment elsewhere, but customer, strictly speaking, may not always be right, but diplomacy and tact must be used to prove him in the wrong.

It is a sign of the times, then, that courtesy henceforth will be demanded from Cleveland police. Responsible officials there, as well as in other cities, have found beyond question that it pays. Courtesy costs nothing, but invariably it produces big dividends. It is as oil to the machinery of human living. Fortunately there is no monopoly on it; it is as free as the air. Its increasing use is proof of a happier and better world. The Middletown force, we are glad to believe, stands well up in this respect with the police force of any other city in the country.

IDEALS.

FRED C. KELLY, the magazine writer, chronicles in a current magazine the story of how as a small boy he held out for $10 for a camera he wished to sell and finally sold it for $5 because the purchaser dazzled him with a $5 gold piece.

This is also like life. The adventurer on life's byways is constantly attracted by the dazzling brilliance of a goal still in the distance. He constantly sells his opportunities for the achievement of a gold-plated prize that too soon turns to brass.

These worthless honors wrapped in shiny tinfoil are the temptations that beset the path of man to divert him from his goal. Those who would keep the brightness of their own destination shining above these gaudy tributes, must have will power, strength of character, a firm purpose and confidence in the fact that their ideal, when reached, will be just as brightly dazzling and will be pure gold all the way through.

EVERY MAN'S GARDEN

Judge me not by what I've said,
Hot in rage, or cold in dread;
Judge me not by what I've done
Seeking goals which must be won;
Prey to moods and temper quick,
Shame lies around about me thick.
But my garden lets you see
Something of the better me.

Walk my garden and behold,
I have loved the marigold!
In those hours which were my own
Roses I have loved and grown;
I have labored here to bring
Hyacinths to bloom in spring.
Here I've kept for all who come

Many a red geranium,

Walk my garden round and see
My devotion to a tree.
See me struggle to express
All my dreams of loveliness
In a pansy patch and make
Dahlia beds for beauty's sake.
Men may think me cold, but oh,
Not a rose would call me so!

Judge me not by what you hear
From the lips of men severe;
If you'd know me as I am,
Stripped of all the world by sham,
Let my little garden be Called to testify for me.
There is evidence supplied
Of my nobler, gentler side.

Mrs. A. R.: "I wonder if any of your readers would be good enough to send in a recipe for Ice-Box Cake?"

Answer: Let us hope that someone will have this recipe and will write it on a postal and mail it to me, in care of this paper, for publication.

Miss F.: "Is it correct to cut a potato with a knife as well as with a fork?"

Answer: No, use only the fork.
Mrs. O. W.: "Some time ago a Column Sister asked for this old-fashioned recipe: Head Cheese: Have your butcher saw a pig's head in quarters lengthwise and scrape out brains and eyes. Put the quarters in cold water to boil with one heaping tablespoon of whole allspice and one dozen bay leaves, but no salt. Boil till meat falls from bones, then drain off water and slice in pieces one inch thick. Have a crock ready. Sprinkle salt on the bottom, add a layer of head cheese, more salt and whole allspice and bay leaves, and repeat these layers. Every housewife must shift herself, however, regarding the strength of seasoning. Top all with a weight and leave three days, when the cheese is ready to be eaten. It will keep indefinitely in a cold place. This is an old Finnish recipe."

Answer: Thank you, Reader Friend. It was kind of you to send this splendid recipe.

Facts about Child-birth

It has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering, pain and dread experienced during pregnancy, as well as at child-birth is entirely unnecessary. An eminent physician, Dr. J. H. Holmes, expert in this science, first produced the great remedy "Mother's Friend," which aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, during the constant readjustment, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth. "Mother's Friend" is applied externally. Three generations of expectant mothers have used it. "Pains disappeared in two days after using 'Mother's Friend,'" writes a user. "I owe my life to 'Mother's Friend,'" declared another. Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did, start today and experience the wonderful comfort it will give you.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

Today's Talks

THE EXTRA EFFORT

Few of us will ever attain but a fraction of the results we hope to achieve.

The most satisfactory life, after all, is but the expression of what a small number of fragments of success and happiness represent.

The larger part of our energies is either wasted or else left to wither unused.

We must be constantly calling upon our will to do just a little better—to make the extra effort. Half the world walks around in its sleep. A lack of stimulus closes the eyes of our finest possibilities.

But we all may go so very far—if we will, it's like the second wind of the runner. Just at the moment when he thinks that he is all "winded" he gets that second wind which carries him to his victory.

Everything that is allowed to lie dormant must through the necessity of nature's true law, crumble and die. But even that which is allowed to die is not lost. Its form passes into some useful channel in the great scheme of things and is finally made useful.

Success is made up of extra efforts, often made under duress or the grip of necessity.

Stimulus, however creates stimulus—a desire to grow, to do better, to excel, to rise, to enlarge and to be of substantial use in the world. "Excitements, ideas, and efforts," says William James, "are what carry us over the dam."

And once over the dam, our plans and purpose, are carried far by their own momentum.

Today you must make an extra effort. And the sum of such days will mark your character as a man or woman.

Engineers Blaze Trail in Sky for Night Mail Planes

One hundred and fifty beacons of varying degrees of brilliancy, which mark the route of the new night air mail service between Chicago and New York, represent months of toil on the part of engineers, who had to blaze a trail of light in the sky under all sorts of conditions. A plane is seen preparing to leave Chicago. At left is a beacon in the wilderness, where there isn't a place to land in miles. At right is seen the type of beacon used: four powerful lights mounted on turn table towers.

PESKY BED-BUGS

(Pesty Devils Quietus) P. D. Q. is the new chemical that puts the everlasting to the pesky bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants and moths—impossible for the pesky devils to exist where P. D. Q. is used.

Recommendations of Hotels, Hospitals, Railroad Companies and other public institutions are a guarantee to the public that the safest, quietest and most economical way of ridding the pesky insects is by the use of P. D. Q., as this chemical kills the eggs as well as the live ones, and will not injure the clothing.

A 3-oz. package makes a full quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, moths or cockroaches—and also contains a patent sprout to get the eggs out in the hard-to-get-at places and saves juice. P. D. Q. can also be purchased in sealed bottles, double strength, liquid form.

Free Tests on the Wasson Motor Check

In Xenia, Ohio
108-110 East Main Street

HAVOLINE

—the power oil—
INDIAN REFINING COMPANY, Incorporated

Oil-Power Test Certificate with Havoline Oil coupons attached

DEALERS—Even if you do not yet handle Havoline, your customers can get these free Motor Check tests. The Havoline coupons enable you to seize this opportunity. You simply sell coupons; we put in the oil and make the tests. Phone us for details today.

We will cut your cost of upkeep—and show you the power in oil

MEASURE the performance of your car—the power it actually delivers and the condition your engine is in. You can do it—FREE—on the Wasson Motor Check with your car running just as it does on the road.

Dials register horse-power delivered at rear wheels from slow speed up to the limit—seven up to 45 or 50 miles an hour. Waste gasoline vapors slipping past your pistons are caught and measured—giving almost an X-ray analysis of your ring and oil seal.

This Havoline Oil-power test is an actual test of your car! The Motor Check shows exactly the condition of your timing, ignition, brakes, speedometer, clutch and wheel alignment. It will save you many a heavy repair bill and cut dollars from your gas and oil expense.

Refill your crank case with Havoline; the rest goes with it, free. Drive around now, buy your oil—and be sure to get a Free Test Certificate. Bring it to the Motor Check with you, and see in your own car what Havoline has shown to others—

Oil which gives most power is the right oil for your car.

You Pay Only for the Oil—

THE Wasson Motor Check is the only machine ever invented which takes any automobile "as is" and tests every running part so as to locate definitely any trouble that exists. It is so scientifically accurate that it shows—in actual horse-power—how power is affected by oil.

Use your Free Test Certificate! Remember you are entitled to all of the following:

First—Your crank case drained and re-filled with your Havoline.

Then—The Free Test on the Wasson Motor Check:—

- 1 Test of car for horse-power.
- 2 Test for slippage of gases past pistons.
- 3 Test for timing accuracy.
- 4 Test of speedometer accuracy.
- 5 Test of wheel alignment.
- 6 Test of brake adjustment.
- 7 Test of car for slipping clutch.
- 8 Tests No. 1 and 2 repeated after you have driven car the distance indicated by Wasson Motor Check engineer. (This shows how Havoline has reduced your slippage and held your power.)
- 9 Your own personal Oil Prescription form for further reference.

Each test in itself has unusual value. The Oil Prescription is by far the most important.

Get it! Follow its recommendations! Then you'll be sure of every benefit that comes from buying oil as power.

Tests do not include repairs or adjustments, but after about fifteen minutes, the Motor Check man tells you ways of saving money that you'd never dream were possible without this chance to see it yourself.

Why oil that gives most power is the right oil for your car—

HORSE-POWER in a car usually falls off after a certain amount of use—in some cars 20 to 50%. Power, oil and gas are wasted. The car wears out faster than it should. Nine times out of ten the trouble is traceable to the oil seal between the cylinders and the pistons. Use weakens oil. Dirt gets in through intake manifold and breather. Metal "dust" gathers. Carbon collects. Unburned gas slips past your rings into the crank case and, when excessive, tends to turn your oil into an anti-lubricant, a power-extinguisher.

A lubricant weakened in this manner cannot possibly hold up your power.

In more than 20,000 tests on real cars, the Motor Check has shown it. These same tests proved that Havoline builds up and holds up power—not only when fresh but also after being used for several hundred miles.

The Free Test shows you how Havoline improves your own car! See it! You must believe the testimony of your senses! You'll listen when your own car tells you—"Oil is more than oil—it is power!"

"NOT POSSIBLE TO CLASSIFY"

BY MACK SAUER

HAY FEVER

Kerchoo! Today we will take up the hay fever situation, for it won't be long until Xenia will be going through its annual epidemic.

Perhaps some day you will be eating dinner, when all of a sudden you will throw your head from side like a diver coming out of the foam and will sneeze loud enough to shake the house. About that time your wife will come running to your side wanting to know if you have swallowed the pepper shaker. If you are lucky, you will sneeze just when she gets in front of you and will blow her back into the other room. If so, you will have known the only satisfaction that comes from hay fever.

After the first sneeze, get away from the table as soon as possible. There have been cases in medical history where patients have lingered too long and have sneezed the dishes off of the table. One Ross Township farmer is reported to have used his sneezing to advantage in keeping his windmill going to pump water for his livestock. Kerchoo!

Now as to the remedy. First call a department store and order a gross of handkerchiefs. Then call a general store and order another gross. The point being not to run too large a bill at either place, for you will have to go back for more.

In order to protect the rest of the family, it is quite wise to stick the patient away in some room by himself, preferably the cellar. If this plan is followed, be sure to remove all of the glass jars from the shelves, for they will be blown away if you don't.

For feeding the afflicted, cut a hole through the floor and let down a few pretzels every few hours. These will go well with the stuff likely to be found in most any collar. Every hour let down a tablespoonful of harness oil. When the swearing is worse than the sneezing, let the patient out and the fresh air will cure him.

GRASS WIDOWS

Don't court a grass widow,
You had better leave her,
For soon comes the time
You get the hay fever.

COMPANY Y BAND TO GIVE CONCERTS HERE

Business men are sponsoring arrangements for a series of band concerts to be given by the Company Y. Band during the remainder of the summer.

The band will give concerts every other Thursday night in some central location.

The band, which consists of eighteen pieces, is under the leadership of Walter Davis. It has been organized for the last two years and has furnished the music for a number of public events. Roy Wolf, member of the band, who has solicited the business men in behalf of the series of concerts, says hearty response of the merchants is appreciated by band members. The concerts held throughout the season last summer drew large and appreciative crowds.

The first concert will be held Thursday evening, July 23. The place will be announced later.

TRAFFIC ORDINANCE WILL BE ENFORCED

Citation in Police Court for any violations of the city traffic ordinance pertaining to the arterial stop system being installed on main thoroughfares, may begin this week, motorists are warned by Police Chief M. E. Graham.

Side streets intersecting with Market Street, designed as a main thoroughfare by the ordinance, have practically all been stenciled by the city department and Greene County Auto Club. The terms of the ordinance require vehicles to come to a complete stop before proceeding on a main thoroughfare.

Chief Graham believes that the motoring public has been sufficiently warned of the stop system and should now be fully acquainted with the terms of the ordinance.

WALTZ RELEASED ON BOND PENDING TRIAL

MICHAEL'S MARRIAGE

By MICHAEL

CHAPTER 88.

Lilah shivered as if ill.

"Don't get excited, dear. You may have mislaid them. Just sit down while I take a look."

"But I know I had them in that little compartment at the right. I took all the letters and papers out of it so I would have room for the envelope. I didn't leave them in the chest because I wanted to use it for something else."

"Well, it must be here somewhere." He began to go through the contents of the desk systematically.

"Oh, dear, what'll we do if we don't find them?"

"There is nothing we can do. They were negotiable bonds. If stolen, anybody can sell them. If destroyed, then we'll have a hard time proving it."

"Oh, dear!" She sat down dizzily.

Michael started to say, "I told you to take them to the bank, you know, but thoughtfully refrained. He completed his search of the desk."

"They're not here. Are you sure you had them in the desk? Think hard, dear, when did you see them last?"

"Of course, I'm sure I had them in the desk," she replied sharply. "The last time I saw them, they were there. I haven't touched them since."

"Don't become peeved, dear. This isn't any time for that. Our minds play us queer tricks at times. Help me look in all the drawers in the room, and try to remember if you had the bonds anywhere else at any time."

Sulky still, but obedient, she silently searched with him. They looked everywhere and in everything.

"I can't think of any other place I had them."

He sat down and stared at her.

"Well, it looks like they're gone. But they must be around the house somewhere. I'll get up early in the morning and make a thorough search everywhere."

"Perhaps Mother used the desk and put them somewhere. I'm sure, though, she would have spoken to me about it, because I didn't tell her about them. I didn't want her to know. But I'm going to ask her, anyway."

She found her mother combing her hair.

"Mother, did you use my desk for anything?"

"No, pet. Why?"

"Oh, an envelope I had some thing in is missing. And I thought you might have seen it somewhere. It's a long, manila envelope."

"No, Pet, I haven't seen it."

"All right, mother. Good night."

She returned to Michael with tears in her eyes.

"Oh, Michael. What are we going to do?"

"Oh, I think we'll find them in the morning. They must be around somewhere."

"But they may have been stolen."

"There aren't any indications that anyone has been in the house are there?"

"No."

Lilah answered a rap at the door, and Mother Pearley came in.

"What was in the envelope?" Lilah, fussed, forced a smile.

"Oh, it doesn't matter, Mother. Mother Pearley regarded her intently. "Lilah, you've been crying! What's the matter?"

Michael intervened. "We're misplaced a valuable envelope, Mrs. Pearley, that is all."

Lilah endeavored to stave off the question her mother's eyes were asking.
